

What's my project mood this week?

Unsure about where to go next, nervous about the timeframe and a little confused about brief

Imogen

Confused on what to start planning

Grace

We know our direction but how would we capitalize on certain parts of the assignment

Christian

Confused on the logistics of how this project will work and how achievable it is in a lockdown environment

Jess

What have I been personally/individually responsible for this week?

Looking into what we need to research for our objective

Grace

Having a look at companies processes as precedents

Christian

Conducting as much research as possible before we start new tasks

Imogen

Looking into company precedents and what processes are out there already

Jess

What is our teams biggest accomplishment so far?

Starting to know which jobs we need to get done

Getting to know each other and creating a google doc to collaboratively research

Meeting together to discuss what our next steps are

Gathering research and working as a team to figure out our next

What is our teams biggest challenge so far?

Not very prepared for a 2 week handin

Without the Springload briefing paper we are a bit clueless

don't have much direction without the springload information

Confusion on what we need to specifically identify in our research

What are some new things I want to try next week?

Delegation of specific tasks/breakdown to be more efficient in our delivery

Start preparing the run-sheet in preparation for workshop

Organise our research into groups

Figure out how to develop a run sheet and what that process looks like

Any other thoughts ....

Need our client brief to really understand our next steps

the Springload information sheets will give a lot of guidance

Clarification with tutors may need to happen

SEPTEMBER 5TH - 9TH

What's my project mood this week?

Worried about the amount of time left

Grace

Becoming more clear about the assignment but still pretty confused and worried about timeframe

Imogen

A little stressed of dealine

Christian

Worried and stressed about how unclear the assignment is at this stage

Jess

What have I been personally/individually responsible for this week?

Having a look at ideas, techniques, and activities we can use in our delivery.

Christian

Researching about different recruitment processes of international and overseas companies

Jess

Looking into international companies recruitment process

Grace

Researching competing international and national company recruitment processes

Imogen

What is our teams biggest accomplishment so far?

LOTS of research

Lots of ideas to go off in shared google docs

Lots of really good research shared on our google doc

Established common goals within the team and milestone dates for tasks

What is our teams biggest challenge so far?

Having a clear route of completion

Having to communicate online rather than in person

Having to work with our conditions and different schedule

The amount of time left until the deadline

What are some new things I want to try next week?

Organise research into a structured form for ready for workshop presentation

Do a practice run-through sheet or explore examples of when a run sheet has been helpful.

Potential practice run-through of runsheet so we are 100% prepared

Exploring different co-design activities and icebreakers that will help workshop run smoothly

Any other thoughts ....

Having a brief in earlier stages wouldve helped us prepare better

Brief could've outlined how to hand in miro boards

Break-out rooms during zoom class would have helped with advice from tutors

Hoping to get class time to work on the assignment

SEPTEMBER 10TH - 11TH

What's my project mood this week?

Better for having a greater understanding of the brief

Grace

Nervous about the project outcomes - since we want to produce outcomes at a high level, I'm unsure if we will be able to come through with our ideas

Imogen

Happier to have a clearer scope of what to do

Christian

nervous with the amount of time left and the amount still needing to be done

Jess

What have I been personally/individually responsible for this week?

Sorting through research and thinking of activity ideas

Christian

Working on the run sheet and developing the workshop Miro board

Jess

Going through our research and sorting it into categories

Grace

Writing up the run sheet, designing activities for the Miro board and brainstorming more activity ideas

Imogen

What is our teams biggest accomplishment so far?

Getting the Run sheet underway and starting on the activities

The Run sheet, making it clear what our next steps are Getting tons of research and making good starts on the runsheet

Being able to implement our research into the run sheet and having a clearer idea of how the

What is our teams biggest challenge so far?

Trying to figure when the best time is to meet

The Appropriateness of activities shown?

Organising which research is relevant for our goals

Organising times to meet up and work together with busy schedules and thinking of ideas

What are some new things I want to try next week?

Do a test run of how our workshop will be conducted

Sort out who does each role in the workshop

Make sure everyone knows their roles on the day

Finalising the Miro workshop board and making sure it is clear and engaging

Any other thoughts ....

I think it definitely helped getting further clarification from Kanhika

Having a group chat and a couple of zooms have been really helpful keeping up to date with ideas

the feedback we received on Friday gave us a lot of guidance

SEPTEMBER 12TH - 13TH

What's my project mood this week?

Happy with our teams progress

Grace

Ready to finish everything off

Christian

Confident that we will present a good workshop and feeling prepared and excited with what we have designed

Imogen

Somewhat calm with what we have achieved

Jess

What have I been personally/individually responsible for this week?

Concising and getting information ready for activity

Christian

developing the Miro board

Jess

Pulling out the main points of research we are going to discuss in the workshop

Grace

Finalising the run sheet and the Miro board

Imogen

What is our teams biggest accomplishment so far?

Getting the Workshop finished

All aspects of the project are almost done

Everything's nearly done except for the runsheet

Brainstorming great ideas and finishing the project with limited time

What is our teams biggest challenge so far?

Clarification on decisions?

Finding a time to meet

Not being able to meet in person and sit down all together

Having very different schedules

What are some new things I want to try next week?

Making the Miro board look presentable through different tools

Practice the workshop, especially my specific roles throughout

Definetly a practice of the workshop

Being 100% confident about presenting and practicing to ensure there are no major slip-ups

Any other thoughts ....

We definetly did a good amount of work this week to get the project close to completion

A slightly longer deadline would've allowed us to more time to meet and discuss

We surprisingly were able to work really well online and achieve a lot only communicating through facebook and zoom
